

INTERCULTURAL SKILLS CERTIFICATE

The International Office of the University of Applied Sciences
Technikum Wien awards

Mr Max Mustermann

the Intercultural Skills Certificate.

The Certificate is awarded for extra-curricular engagement in international and intercultural exchange while studying at the University of Applied Sciences Technikum Wien. In order to acquire the certificate, students have to accumulate at least 15 Circoins from different internationalization activities. Examples of such activities are listed on the rear of this document.

Vienna, 05.04.2018

FH-Prof. Dipl.-Ing. Dr. Fritz Schmöllebeck
Rector

Mag. Agnes Kriz, MA
Head of International Office

Examples of internationalization activities leading to the certificate:

- Exchange semester at a partner institution (7.5 Circoins)
- Participation in a foreign summer school for approximately 2 weeks (5 Circoins)
- Participation in extracurricular language classes (3 Circoins)
- Writing of a bachelor or master thesis in English (5 Circoins)
- Voluntary work at an international student's association (5 Circoins)
- Acting as a buddy for an incoming student (5 Circoins)
- etc.

MUSTER

